Pick-a-Prompt

1. Which sentences best show the character's problem in the story?

2. How does the character feel in the story? How do you know?

3. What can the reader conclude about the character? How do you know?

4. What lesson does the character learn in the chunk?

5. How do the characters feel about each other?

6. What does the reader learn in the last paragraph of this chunk?

7. What are the most important details/events from the chunk?

8. What is something you are still wondering about after reading?

9. What part was difficult to understand? Why?

10. What part had the most interesting language? Why did you pick that part?

11. Do you connect to the character? Why or why not?

12. How has the character changed in this chunk of the text?

The Meadows Center
FOR PREVENTING EDUCATIONAL RISK

elite²
English Learner Institute for
Teaching and Excellence²

IDEAs that Work
Office of Special Education Programs
U.S. Department of Education

Discussion Stems

1. I agree/disagree with you because...

2. I would like to add to what _____ is saying...

3. I would also like to add...

4. What did you mean when you said...?

5. Can you tell me where you saw that in the text?

6. Could you give me an example of that?

The Meadows Center
FOR PREVENTING EDUCATIONAL RISK

elite²
English Learner Institute for
Teaching and Excellence²

IDEAs that Work
Office of Special Education Programs
U.S. Department of Education